HEINRICH ALBERT ( 1604 -1651): 12 LIEDER/ SONGS edited by Mathias Rösel

The German composer Heinrich Albert (1604-1651) wrote vocal music for a wide range of occasions mostly following the Königsberg school of composers. He became popular for his songs for one voice with thorough bass, some of which he developed himself from his polyphonic works. His melodies show Italian traits (realization of affects by rhythmical means), French characteristics (features of the spoken word like stress, long and short syllables, transferred into music) and Polish as well as German dance rhythms. Instrumental arrangements of his songs for the lute can be found in some contemporary Prussian manuscripts, e.g. Berlin 40264 (Renata Gehema) and Rostock xvii-54.

The editor Mathias Rösel gathered some of Albert's songs and wrote out the thorough bass for the lute in Renaissance tuning. In his preface to the present edition he wrote: „Hopefully, singers and lute players alike will enjoy this little collection. I am thrilled by the notion that some of them will possibly rediscover Heinrich Albert as an outstanding song composer.“ With an introduction in German and English.

French tablature/Renaissance tuning Euro 20.-

JOHANN SEBASTIAN BACH : WORKS FOR LUTE

edited by Yasunori Imamura

Bach's lute music holds enormous fascination for lutenists. Unfortunately, because there is a lack of accurate and playable intabulations, many players have been deprived of the opportunity to play his music. It is hoped that this edition will enable more players to have access to the exalted world of this sublime music.

The edition contains : BWV 995, 996, 997, 998, 999, 1000, 1006a.

French tablature/Baroque tuning.

Euro 40.-

JOHANN SEBASTIAN BACH (1685 - 1750): Pieces from BWV 995, 997, 1000

Facsimile of Ms. Leipzig III.11.3-4-5

Pieces for Baroque Lute in contemporary intabulation (Johann Christian Weyrauch).

French Tablature/Baroque tuning.

Euro 20.-

JOHANN SEBASTIAN BACH : 4 SUITES FOR LUTE

edited by Gusta Goldschmidt.

This edition contains 4 violoncello solo suites (BWV 1007, 1008, 1009, 1010), arranged for lute . These suites are especially charming on the lute and are not difficult to play. Preface in both English and German.

JOHANN SEBASTIAN BACH: SONATA BWV 1001

arranged for Baroque lute by Wilfred Foxe

The Sonata in G Minor BWV 1001 was originally composed for unaccompanied violin and forms the first of three sonatas and three partitas, BWV 1001 – 1006, Johann Sebastian Bach composed in 1720 whilst he was in the service of Prince Leopold of Anhalt Cöthen. A re-working of the fugue has come down to us in the manuscript of Johann Christian Weyrauch, but the Italianate language of the complete Sonata lends itself to the lute.

JOHANN SEBASTIAN BACH: partita BWV 1002

arranged for Baroque lute by Wilfred Foxe

The Partita in A minor BWV 1002 was originally composed for unaccompanied violin and it forms the first partita of three sonatas and three partitas, BWV 1001 – 1006, Johann Sebastian Bach composed in 1720 whilst he was in the service of Prince Leopold of Anhalt Cöthen. The formal structure of the Partita follows a series of four dance movements each of which is accompanied by a double. Pairings such as these are often found in the compositions<sup>1</sup> of the luthistes but this is not the only possible influence of the lute found in the Partita since many of the doubles exhibit obvious elements of what François Couperin called les choses lutées.

JOHANN SEBASTIAN BACH: PARTITA D MINOR BWV 1004

arranged for Baroque Lute by Wilfred Foxe

The Partita BWV1004 has long been a favourite with players of plucked string instruments and the Ciacone, in particular, has earned a celebrity virtually unparalleled in any era of music making. The present publication contains a full description of the method used in making the arrangement, together with relevant musical examples, and this is presented as an appendix to the complete partita arranged for 13-course baroque lute.

DIETRICH BUXTEHUDE (1637 - 1707): SUITE G MINOR (BuxWV 241)

set for two Renaissance lutes by Stefan Nesyba

Suite in 4 movements by the North German composer Buxtehude (organ player and composer at St. Mary's Church in Lübeck). Set out for two Renaissance Lutes. Johann Sebastian Bach admired Buxtehude (1673-1707) so much that he went nearly 400 kilometres by foot to Lübeck to hear Buxtehude play.

DIETRICH BUXTEHUDE: SUITE BuxWV 236 edited by Wilfred Foxe

The cembalo suite transcribed here is probably Buxtehude's most popular work in the genre and its four movements add here to the Allemande-Courante-Sarabande-Gigue pattern of the classical suite in much the same way as the keyboard works of Froberger or the lute works of Esaias Reusner the younger.

Corpus of Italian Renaissance Lute Music Vol. II

GIULIO CESARE BARBETTA (c 1540 - c 1602): COLLECTED LUTE MUSIC

edited by Gian Luca Lastraioli

Despite the fact that Giulio Cesare Barbetta was one of the most important lutenists of the second half of the Italian Cinquecento, very little is known about his life. Barbetta was certainly born in Padua (the title pages of his publications always refer to him as „Padoano“ or Padovano“) possibly around the year 1540, while 1603 (the year of publication of his last work - Intavolatura di liuto delle canzonette) is the post quem date for his death.

Barbetta's books present all the typical genres of the lute music of the second half of the Italian Cinquecento: preambuli, fantasias, intabulations of Italian madrigals and French chansons, pavanas and paduanas, passemazzi and galliards (sometimes paired in the form of a two piece suite), balletti, moresche, saltarelli, dance pieces for two lutes, arie to be used for singing stanze e versi d'ogni sorte („strophes and verses of every kind“), and canzonette.

All the lute books published by Barbetta were printed in Italian tablature. For the present edition all the pieces have been transcribed into French tablature. All the original right hand fingering marks have been left unaltered in the transcriptions, as they represent a precious indication for today's performers about phrasing. The present edition contains 130 solo pieces for seven course lute and four duet pieces.

Text in English. 4 lute books in one volume.

PIETRO PAOLO BORRONO: COLLECTED WORKS FOR LUTE

edited by Gian Luca Lastraioli

The present edition contains all the music that, to the present day, can be safely ascribed to the Italian lutenist and composer Pietro Paolo Borrono. Borrono was born in Milan c. 1490. His musical reputation must have been very high in the eyes of his contemporaries. All of his pieces were published in books where they appeared side by side to those composed by his illustrious fellow citizen Francesco da Milano. That such a “star” as Francesco would have no objection in associating his own name (and pieces) to Borrono's certainly means that the “divino Francesco” highly valued the music composed by the “soldier” Pietro Paolo. The solid publishing partnership Francesco/Pietro Paolo was therefore to stand out in the panorama of the lute music printed in Italy during the third and fourth decades of the Cinquecento, with Francesco being by far the most exquisite composer of polyphonic works, and with Borrono giving his best in the field of dance music.

ERNST GOTTLIEB BARON: COLLECTED WORKS

edited by Jan W.J. Burgers

The music of Ernst Gottlieb Baron (1696–1760), lutenist to King Frederick the Great of Prussia, has until now not been given the attention it deserves. In Germany during his lifetime Baron was regarded as one of the most outstanding virtuosos of the lute, and leading critics ranked him among the best composers of the nation. The modern neglect he has suffered was caused perhaps by the fact that most of his music seems to have been lost, and that the works, which have survived, are probably his less demanding ones, aimed at the amateur players. It is clear, however, that these tuneful and relatively easy pieces should be a welcome addition to the repertory of today's lutenist, amateur as well as professional. Moreover, Baron's ensemble works, mostly lute trios, are more ambitious than his lute solos and surely deserve more attention than is the case at present. It is hoped that these books, in which all of the surviving works of this lute-nist have been collected, will help to revive the interest in Baron's art.

The complete edition includes

- introduction dealing with Baron's life, works and musical style
- full critical commentary
- transcription into staff notation
- Tablature and parts for Solo lute works, duets, Ensemble works
- list of sources and bibliography

Corpus of Italian Renaissance Lute Music Vol. III

JOAN AMBROSIO DALZA: WORKS FOR LUTE edited by Gian Luca Lastraioli
Dalza's Intabolatura de Lauto is the only „first hand“ source of his music that has survived to the present day: a few other versions of Dalza's pieces can be found in other printed and manuscript sources of lute music of the 16th Century, but all of them are to be considered as „copies“ directly descending from the 1508 Petrucci edition. Therefore, unless in the future new music by Dalza is rediscovered, the present edition contains all the known music than can be safely ascribed to this Italian lutenist. Dalza's Intabolatura is one of the most interesting and precious sources of Italian lute music of the first quarter of the Cinquecento.

FANTASIAS & RECERCARS FOR RENAISSANCE LUTE Vol. I

44 lute solos, collected, transcribed and edited by John H. Robinson

50 or so books of Renaissance lute music published in the sixteenth century were notated in German lute tablature. Of these, nine include fantasias and recercars for solo lute. All thirty six of these are transcribed into French tablature in this edition. An appendix of eight more associated with one of the publishers brings the total to 44 in all. All the music in this edition is for solo lute in Renaissance vieil ton tuning (6 courses tuned G c f a d' g', assuming a lute in G pitch, only one piece has an added 7th course, tuned to F).

FANTASIAS & RECERCARS FOR RENAISSANCE LUTE Vol. II

collected, transcribed and edited by John H. Robinson

This edition is the second in a series of fantasias and recercars transcribed into French tablature from sources in German lute tablature. The present volume includes all fifty five of the lute solos titled fantasia or recercar found in manuscripts wholly or partly notated in German tablature dated between c.1520 and c.1580. The music is ordered chronologically by source, which shows the development from simpler free form recercars into the more complex polyphonic fantasia.

The music in the manuscript sources used for this edition is all notated in German tablature but is transcribed into French tablature here, which is more accessible to lutenists of the twenty first century.

The GOESS LUTE AND VIOL MANUSCRIPTS of Schloss Ebenthal

In 1979 the American scholar, Douglas Alton Smith, visited the GOESS family seat, Schloss Ebenthal, near Klagenfurt in the southern Austrian province of Carinthia expecting to find a single lute book; eventually no fewer than 13 tablature manuscripts from the 17th and 18th century were discovered on the shelves. They had apparently all belonged to the family from their compilation, and thus constitute a unique and priceless record of several generations of musical activity in a distinguished Austrian noble household. Douglas Smith arranged the photographing of the manuscripts by Albert Reyerman and others and reported the discovery in an article discussing the manuscripts and their family background (EARLY MUSIC, October 1982, pp.462-7).

The three viol tablatures were catalogued from these films by Gordon Dodd in England, and in 1986 Albert Reyerman visited Schloss Ebenthal again, this time together with Tim Crawford, in order to carry out a more detailed examination of the manuscripts. Albert Reyerman of TREE EDITION was allowed to take all manuscripts home to Munich in Germany, where he had the equipment to make full size reproductions of every single page of the manuscripts, in total nearly 1000 pages of outstanding music.

THE LUTEBOOK OF WOLFF CHRISTIAN VON HARLING, Jena, c 1618

with introduction and concordances by Joachim Lüdtke

Wolff Christian von Harling was a nobleman from a family with an ancestral seat in Eversen (Lower Saxony, Germany). He entered the protestant convent of St. Michael's in Lüneburg at an early age and lived there until his death during an epidemic in 1639. His lute book, the work of several hands, has been written during his years at the Jena university where von Harling studied from on 1618.

This manuscript contains attractive music which is well in the reach of the intermediate lute player. Its repertoire consists mainly of dances of French provenance, some of them clearly based on the four-voice versions of Michael Praetorius' Terpsichore. English music - sometimes with German titles - features with several popular pieces, e.g. The hunt's up, and versions of John Dowland's Battle Galliard and Frog Galliard. Germany contributes a number of song settings, a group of Lutheran chorales and other pieces.

With the book comes a CD ROM showing photographic impressions of the elaborated gables of the brick houses in the city of Lüneburg, where von Harling once lived.

JOHN JOHNSON (1540 - 1594): COLLECTED LUTE MUSIC

COMPLETE EDITION, edited by Jan W. J. Burgers

Here at last is the definitive edition of John Johnson, the earliest great Elizabethan lute composer and the greatest of all lute duet composers. Dr. Burgers edition presents for the first time all 49 of John Johnson's solo lute pieces and 25 duets, including many pieces that are probably by Johnson but unattributed in the manuscript sources. It includes substantial studies of Johnson's life, works, and musical style as well as commentary and concordance list for each piece. A significant new contribution to the lute world.

Text in English. 2 hardbound volumes. 470 pages.

The complete edition includes:

Vol I

- introduction dealing with Johnsons's life, works and musical style
- full critical commentary
- transcription into staff notation
- list of sources and bibliography

Vol II

- the tablature

THE LEIPZIG BAROQUE LUTE BOOK, c 1680

Facsimile of Leipzig II.6.24

This magnificent lute book from the Leipzig Music Library comprises 347 lute pieces on 474 pages (!) and is here published for the first time.

From the point of music this is one of the most beautiful collections of Lute pieces I have ever seen. It is my absolute favorite! For better legibility the pages have been enlarged somewhat; for convenience the facsimile edition has been divided into two handsome volumes.

Pieces by Mercure, DuFaut, Strobel, Pinel, Gautier, Dubut, Gumprecht, Gallot, and many anonymous, extremely beautiful pieces, being NOT difficult to play!

HENRY LAWES: DIALOGUE ON A KISSE edited by Peter Croton

Dialogue on a Kisse, by Henry Lawes (1595 – 1662), is a Duet for two voices, Soprano and Tenor and Continuo. It is well-suited for accompaniment on the 7-course renaissance lute, and this edition aims to help the lutenist choose appropriate harmonies, texture and voice-leading. It is our hope that the present edition will give many lutenists access to this delightful song, and perhaps even encourage them to explore the challenging yet rewarding art of improvised thorough-bass accompaniment in the vast repertoire of 17th and 18th century music. Newly set score and additional facsimile.

METHOD FOR THE BAROQUE LUTE by Toyohiko Satoh
An authoritative baroque lute tutor has long been awaited. After 15 years teaching in higher music education, the author has produced a work based on baroque lute technique reconstructed from historical sources. The book contains methodically and progressively graded exercises in playing technique as well as historical information and guidance on ornamentation and interpretation compiled from the literature of the 17th and 18th century. Drawing on his wide concert experience Toyohiko Satoh presents music ranging from that of the best baroque lute composers to complete suites by Losy, Weiss and Bach. French tablature. Text in English (a separate booklet with a German translation of the text will be included if you order from Germany, Austria or Switzerland).

ELIAS MERTEL: COMPLETE LUTE SOLOS edited by John H. Robinson
Elias Mertel is remembered today for his anthology Hortus Musicalis Novus, Strasbourg 1615. In the preface of Hortus, Mertel claims that he composed none of the music himself. This edition brings together lute solos that are ascribed to Mertel. More than forty pages of tablature contains the twenty six attractive solo pieces, a biographical study and survey of the sources with footnotes, a commentary with a table of editorial alterations and a complete bibliography of sources. The edition includes an appendix of concordances and cognates for the preludes and fantasias in Mertel's Hortus.

Music for Vihuela or Lute

LUYS MILAN: EL MAESTRO
Introduction by Hopkinson Smith / with additional CD ROM
EL MAESTRO is the only vihuela book to claim a pedagogical intent. Milan states that the solo works in the collection are increasingly challenging as the book progresses. For modern vihuelistas or lutenists interested in delving further into the world of Luys Milan, there is nothing better than to play his music and read his performing instructions.
With the book comes an additional CD ROM, on which you will find the original book scanned in high resolution and full color. The CD ROM is fully indexed, so that you can find any piece by a single mouseclick. Also you are able to view those tablature letters printed in RED ink, which in the songs represent the vocal line for the singer. The book is written in Spanish tablature, which is easy to understand for all those players accustomed to French Tablature.

NICOLAS VALLET (1583 - 1642) : PIECES FOR 4 LUTES edited by Anne Bailes
Although the solo music of Vallet has long been available, this is the first modern edition of his delightful quartets. Mistakes and inconsistencies have been corrected and it is hoped that this performing edition will meet the demands of those interested in lute ensemble music. Introduction in English and German.
French tablature/Renaissance tuning. Euro 15.-

7 DUETS BY ENRIQUEZ DE VALDERRABANO (1500 - 1557),
from SILVA DE SIRENAS, edited by Richard Darsie.
This edition presents seven duets from one of the greatest Spanish vihuela tablatures, with numbered measures for practice convenience. These duets, unique in the repertoire, are faithful transcriptions of works by some of the greatest composers of vocal polyphony. Lutenists will find them satisfying to play; the hardest of them is only of moderate difficulty and they have a unique, full sound which sets them apart from the rest of the duet repertoire.

SILVIUS LEOPOLD WEISS (1686 - 1750) : Sonata L'INFIDELE

edited by Jonathan Rubin

S.L.Weiss's Sonata in intitled L'INFIDELE is presented here in a beautifully handwritten version with numerous fingering suggestions. The foreword contains a comparison between the most interesting differencies between the British Museum version (upon which this edition is based) and the Dresden Ms. version. In addition, a complete MUNETTE from the Dresden Ms. is included as a variant.

SILVIUS LEOPOLD WEISS: 5 DUO SUITES FOR FLUTE AND LUTE

edited by Michel Cardin

The current rediscovery of Weiss's chamber music is both surprising and amazing the musical world of the present. The chamber works seem to reveal the composer's genius with even more aplomb than his works for lute solo, owing to their easier comparison to the chamber music of such composers as Bach, Haendel and Telemann. Weiss's solo works, albeit more and more admired –and with good reason-, tend to disclose little of their intrinsic worth due to of a lack of grounds for comparison, notwithstanding their contemporaneousness to Bach's solo lute works. Moreover, there are three additional surprises. Firstly, the second Concert of the London Manuscript is composed not by Silvius Leopold but by Sigismund Weiss (c.1695-1737), the younger brother of Silvius. Secondly, all the flute parts in the manuscript have been reconstructed, since the originals have disappeared.

The WITTGENSTEIN LUTE BOOK edited by Mathias Roesel.

This previously unknown manuscript from the noble household of the German family Sayn-Wittgenstein-Hohenstein is published here for the first time.

The text-section of the book: - Principia der Laute (Principles of the lute) – contains contemporary explanations on how to perform graces. The music-section contains 102 pieces for the eleven-course baroque lute, dating until 1720. Named composers are Ebner, Kühnel, Losy and Meusel, besides many anonymous pieces.

Concordances and incipits were compiled by Markus Lutz and Peter Steur. The moderate level of difficulty makes it a treasure trove for lovers of the baroque lute.

Corpus of Italian Renaissance Lute Music Vol. V

GIOVANNI ZAMBONI: LIBRO D'INTAVOLATURA DI LEUTO, Lucca 1718

transcribed and edited by Gian Luca Lastraioli

The style of Zamboni's twelve sonatas is highly elegant and all of his pieces show an accurate level of idiomatic writing for the instrument. For this reason they represent a precious, virtually unique, example of lute music of the Italian Settecento. Finally, not only can Zamboni's sonatas enrich the solo repertoire of today's lutenist, but they also represent an excellent source of inspiration for a better understanding of the art of basso continuo realization on the archlute as it was practiced in Italy during the baroque period. For 10-course lute or archlute/French tablature/Renaissance tuning Euro 30.-
